

To apply for a position, please email your resume to recruiting@level5partners.com. In the 'Subject:' line please type the position for which you are applying.

Senior Developer / Analyst / Team Leader

Department: Development

Reports to: Vice President of Engineering

Location: New Jersey

Level 5 Partners Development Group is seeking a senior application developer with XML/XSL, J2EE, Oracle or MySQL, and LDAP experience to architect and implement large enterprise applications. The ideal candidate is very strong technically, a team player, and committed to success.

1.1 Primary Responsibilities

- Architecture and design of solutions to complex development requirements in the three tiered environment discussed above.
- Identification and development of mitigation plans for potential problems.
- Management of projects implementing those solutions.
- Helping team members resolve design, development, and performance issues and overcome interpersonal communication issues.
- Performing code reviews.
- Interaction with senior management and other senior programmer/analyst/team leaders.

1.2 Required Skills

1.2.1 Design

- Three tier system architecture design;
- Object oriented design;
- Design and implementation of development approaches/tools to facilitate rapid development;
- Entity relationship or relational database design;

1.2.2 Development

- J2EE;
- Oracle or MySql database server development;
- Development of test plans.
- Coding and testing user interface software that interacts with a custom/sophisticated client/server application programming interface.
- XML Design and XSL creation

1.2.3 Communications/Leadership

- Problem solving;
- Interpersonal communications;
- Must be a team player with the ability to coordinate and deal with people in technical and non-technical roles;
- Mastery of the English language;

1.2.4 Miscellaneous

- Strong problem solving skills;

1.3 Required Experience

- 5+ years of recent development experience in visual development, database server, and three tier client/server architecture, design and development;
- Proven ability to manage and work as part of an application development team;
- Proven ability to work to committed deadlines and budgets;

1.4 Required Education/Professional Qualifications

- A B.Sc. in Computer Science, a B. Sc. in Computer Engineering, or a B. Com. in Information Systems;
- References will be required prior to employment.